

KABIR BEDI

Kabir Bedi is one of the most famous international actors to have come out of India. His career spans three decades on three continents: America, Europe and Asia.

In the James Bond film "OCTOPUSSY" he played Gobinda, the villain who battled Roger Moore from start to finish. In Europe, his greatest success was the banner role in "SANDOKAN", a record-breaking Italian-German-French television series, the saga of a romantic Asian freedom fighter during British colonial times. And over a billion people in 149 countries saw Kabir as Prince Omar in "THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL", one of the world's most-watched television programmes, for over a year.

Recently, Kabir starred in the London West End musical adaptation of M.M. Kaye's "THE FAR PAVILIONS", directed by Gale Edwards, at the Shaftesbury Theatre. His earlier stage performances have included the "the mad king" in Girish Karnad's historical "TUGHLAQ", a raging alcoholic in Vijay Tendulkar's "THE VULTURES", and an acclaimed portrayal of Shakespeare's "OTHELLO", directed by Alyque Padamsee for the Bombay Theatre Group.

Kabir also plays Emperor Shah Jahan in "TAJ MAHAL. An Eternal Love Story", Bollywood's biggest epic, released internationally in November 2005. Kabir has acted in over 60 Bollywood films, playing a wide range of roles, leading and supporting, positive and negative, younger and older: from Raj Khosla's "KUCHCHE DHAAGE", Rakesh Roshan's "KHOON BHARI MAANG", Feroz Khan's "YALGAAR" to more recent films like Anil Sharma's "THE HERO", Dharmesh Darshan's "BEWAFA" and Farah Khan's "MAIN HOON NA".

Releasing late 2006, Kabir has a starring role in a British comedy, "TAKE 3 GIRLS", directed by Baz Taylor and produced by Inspired Films, a human drama with lots of humour, in the style of "Bend It Like Beckham".

In 2004, Kabir starred in an Italian film, "ANDATA RITORNO", directed by Marco Ponti, whose first film had won Italy's most prestigious Donatello Award. Earlier in his career, Kabir starred as Michael Caine's tribal companion in "ASHANTI", as the Prince in "THE THIEF OF BAGHDAD", and as "THE BLACK PIRATE" ("IL CORSARO NERO"), an Italian swashbuckler. He played a comic South American revolutionary in Bud Spencer's Italian TV mini-series "WE ARE ANGELS" ("NOI SIAMO ANGELI"). Kabir also had a significant role in Columbia Pictures' "THE BEAST OF WAR", directed by Kevin Reynolds.

Kabir's American TV roles include many leads in highly-rated mini-series and series.

US mini-series: NBC-Hallmark's "THE LOST EMPIRE", directed by Peter MacDonald, "FORBIDDEN TERRITORY: STANLEY'S SEARCH FOR LIVINGSTONE", directed by Simon Langton, "TOM CLANCY'S OP CENTER", Ken Follett's "ON WINGS OF EAGLES", and "RED EAGLE".

US Series: "DYNASTY", "MURDER SHE WROTE", "HUNTER", "STINGRAY", "RIPTIDE", "KNIGHT RIDER", "MAGNUM P.I." and "HIGHLANDER". Kabir also acted opposite Blair Brown in "THE DAYS AND NIGHTS OF MOLLY DODD", directed by Jay Tarses, for NBC.

Kabir is a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences (Oscars), Screen Actors Guild (SAG), American Federation of Television & Radio Artists (AFTRA), Cine Artists of India, and British Equity Actors Union (Equity).

Kabir Bedi is based both in Bombay and London.
